OAP's anger over lack of apology in sex slur claim

Marines take over tower to launch poppy appeal

ROYAL Marines abseiled down Luton Airport's control tower on Friday to kick off this year's poppy appeal.

The Royal British Legion launched their 90th Bedfordshire Poppy Appeal in front of a large group of supporters including a number veterans.

Oliver Jaycock, marketing manager at the airport said: "This is such a worthwhile cause, we are more than happy to host the event and ensure that Bedfordshire's appeal launches in style."

The Royal British Legion safeguards the welfare, interests and memory of those who are serving or who have served in the Armed Forces.

EXCLUSIVE

BY SOPHIE SCOTT

sophie.scott@lutononsunday.co.uk

A DISABLED 75-year-old who faced an allegation of sexual assault by a carer, which was later withdrawn, has been angered by a lack of an apology.

David Gower, of Colwell Rise, Luton, was receiving care from Swivel Care & Support Services Ltd when the woman made the claim, which he strenuously denies.

Mr Gower (pictured) suffers from a neurological disorder which means he is unable to walk without a frame and can barely hold a pen and needs help with his day-to-day life.

The woman complained to Luton Borough Council about Mr Gower, but the complaint was later withdrawn when she left Swivel. The authority have apologised to him for the distress it has caused.

But the pensioner is upset over the lack of communication he is getting from Swivel who, despite numerous calls and meetings, he says will not withdraw the complaint.

Mr Gower (right) said: "I am absolutely disgusted that they won't apologise and withdraw the complaint."

"I have asked them numerous times and I have been met with a wall of silence and rudeness."

"It is affecting my health and well-being having this hanging over my head. I can't sleep and have so many sleepless nights. It is so upsetting as it is so serious."

"I cannot fault Luton Borough Council at all, they have dealt with it so well. I just wish Swivel would apologise."

A spokesman for the Town Hall said: "We have written to and met with Mr Gower and, as far as we are concerned, the matter is now closed."

Samartha Ndagi, manager of Swivel Care, said: "As far as I am concerned this case is closed. I will not write a letter to him."

No complaint was made to the police.

County police will 'talk to anyone' if it saves money

BY HAZEL SLADE
editor@lsnmedia.com

CASH-STRAPPED Bedfordshire Police are opening their doors to 'ANYBODY' who would like to share services in a bid to claw back a £15.1m funding gap.

The news comes as plans to join Bedfordshire and Hertfordshire forces' Firearms and Information and Communication Technology units are given the thumbs up – saving more than £500,000 a year.

After a merger between the two constabularies was rejected by Hertfordshire in July, the two forces began looking at extending collaboration in relation to a number of their units.

Bedfordshire Chief Constable Gillian Parker, who dubbed collaboration a 'hellish option' in July, explained the proposals are not enough to make the savings needed and the force is open to discussions with other public bodies and private business to look at shared services.

Mrs Parker refuted rumours that a merger with Cambridgeshire Police is on the cards, although discussions are underway regarding the collaboration between the forces.

She said: "I'm determined to safeguard policing services and jobs.

"A merger would have been a far better option.

"The police and the local authorities do offer very different services, but nonetheless there are some we could share.

"We have to squeeze out as much as we can from those things that don't directly affect the public.

"Public service cuts are the last resort but I think it is inevitable."

So far the two forces have introduced collaboration between their Major Crime Units, Professional Standards Units, Dog Units, Scientific Services and Civil Contingencies and Public Order Planning sections.

The latest two were agreed in a meeting of Bedfordshire Police Authority this month, as well as initial proposals to liaise over procurement issues between Bedfordshire, Hertfordshire and Cambridgeshire and pensions between Hertfordshire and Bedfordshire.

The chairman of Bedfordshire Police Authority Peter Conniff explained that if the procurement proposal is agreed the three forces could end up wearing the same uniform.

He said: "Anybody, public or private, we would welcome them to talk to us.

"Anything is always cheaper if you make a bigger order.

"We've got to look at anybody who can help save our costs and theirs, as long as it's in the best interest of the people of Bedfordshire."

Report casts force in poor light over performance and missed targets

BEDFORDSHIRE Police are performing below average and missing most of their targets.

The twice-annual performance report shows the force in a bad light, as they have fallen way behind their targets.

The review measures the performances of forces nationwide, in areas such as public confidence, levels of crime recorded and the performance of emergency responses.

Bedfordshire Police scored below their targets in 19 out of 22 of these indicators, of which there was one other with no set target.

In 18 of these, Bedfordshire Police were classed as 'significantly below target,' meaning they were five per cent lower than their target.

For example, the force had set the target of having a maximum of 20,334 recorded crimes in between April and September, when the actual figure stood at 22,343.

Also, in the minority ethnic recruitment target, they are only halfway to fulfilling the target, with only five per cent of officers recruited this year being from an ethnic minority background.

Compared to similar forces, Bedfordshire was below average in 12 of the 15 indicators where an average was applicable, while meeting the average in the other three.

Bedfordshire Police's deputy chief constable John Fletcher (pictured) said: "In terms of targets themselves, Bedfordshire Police have been set far-stretching targets and that's quite right and proper so we improve our performance year-on-year.

"Context is important though.

"Bedfordshire Police have reduced crime by 18 per cent in the last three years, that is 9,000 fewer victims of crime.

"We are not complacent and I would like to emphasise there is nothing to indicate violence is on the rise in Bedfordshire."

EasyJet chief calls for rethink over air tax rise

THE UK'S largest airline has called for air passenger duty (APD) to be reformed.

EasyJet – which carries more passengers each year than British Airways – issued a reminder on Friday that APD is set to rise once again next week to £12 on flights within Europe which means the tax will have increased by 140 per cent since 2007.

The low-cost carrier is continuing its campaign to overhaul APD along with other airlines and environmental groups because there is no relation between the level of the tax and the level of emissions.

It says the issues surrounding the fairness of the tax remain unaddressed since transfer passengers joining flights departing from the UK pay no tax and those travelling on private jets remain exempt while ordinary passengers bear the full burden of the levy.

Reform of APD is included in the Government's Coalition agreement and both the Conservatives and the Liberal Democrats made reform of APD from a poll tax on passengers into a fairer and greener per-plane tax a firm manifesto commitment.

EasyJet's chief executive Carolyn McCall said: "The Government should reform Air Passenger Duty to make it fairer for the public and to encourage greener behaviour by airlines.

"APD is already higher in the UK than anywhere else in Europe and UK passengers and the environment would be better off if the tax was shifted from per person to a per-plane tax."

Victim left with burns following attack with a mystery liquid

A MAN suffered burns to his body after an attacker threw an unknown liquid at him.

The 39-year-old victim was assaulted as he left a property in Abbottswood Road, Luton, on Thursday night around 11pm.

Detective constable Lavern Charles said: "The victim was taken to the Luton and Dunstable Hospital for treatment to the burns and it is believed he will be left with some scarring. "I would like to trace anyone who has information about this incident.

"It is possible that the offender was waiting for the victim to leave the house and pedestrians or motorists may have seen him in the street prior to the assault."

Anyone with information relating to this incident should call DC Charles at Luton Police Station, in confidence, on 01582 394193, or Crimestoppers, anonymously, on 0800 555 111.

Pigeons' necks wrung in view of hospital patients

EXCLUSIVE

BY SOPHIE SCOTT

sophie.scott@lutononsunday.co.uk

A WOMAN was left 'disgusted' after hospital pest control killed baby pigeons in full sight of patients.

Debbie Mills, 52, of Waller Avenue, Luton, was visiting her mother in Luton & Dunstable Hospital on Monday when she first saw the distressed birds.

She reported to a nurse that the pigeons were trapped but was shocked when she returned the next day to see a man wringing the necks of the birds.

Ms Mills said: "I first saw them on the Monday and they were really distressed, I thought they were trapped in the air conditioning and their mum was desperately trying to get to them.

"I told the nurse in the office and asked her if she could call maintenance to free them and she said she would.

"When I came back on Tuesday afternoon, one of the patients noticed someone was on the roof so we went to the window to see what was happening.

"I saw him take the pigeons out and I thought he was freeing them and then he just broke their necks and threw them in a bag.

"I was absolutely disgusted. Everyone could see what he was doing. I opened the window and asked what he was doing and he said 'I am dispatching them'.

"I was so shocked. He said they are 'flying vermin'. He then just put bird feed back where they had been and closed what must have been a trap."

A hospital spokesman said: "Pigeons are attracted to the warmth of the hospital buildings. Since pigeon droppings present a health hazard, the L&D uses a specialist contractor who flies a hawk over the hospital twice a week to scare the pigeons.

"This has proved to be very effective in reducing the number of roosting pigeons. We also have large nets over gaps in the buildings. From time to time, pigeons find a way through the net.

"On this occasion the contractor, who is licensed to control pigeons that present a health hazard, saw that the pigeons were distressed and despatched them in a humane way.

"On other occasions, the pigeons can sometimes be released. Incidentally, the hawk does not catch and eat the pigeons since the contractor ensures that the hawk is fed before it flies out to scare the birds away.

"Controlling pigeons is quite sophisticated. The pigeons cleverly get used to which days the hawk is flying so the contractor comes on different days and at different times of the day to ensure that the pigeons don't notice a pattern."

UPSET: Debbie Mills has complained after seeing pigeons killed by a pest controller at Luton & Dunstable Hospital

Muriel suffered fatal heart attack after car collision

AN ELDERLY woman who was hit by a car earlier this month has died in hospital after suffering a heart attack.

Muriel Kirby, 75, of Grove Road, Dunstable, was taken to Luton & Dunstable Hospital with a suspected broken hip after the collision in Cardigan Street, Luton, on October 12.

But she later died in St George's Hospital, London, after she had a heart attack. She underwent a right hip replacement and pelvic repair because of the crash.

Another man, who is 73, was hit by the blue Vauxhall Vectra and was taken to hospital with minor injuries.

It is believed the car driver involved did stop at the scene for a short time but the driver left leaving no contact details.

The car was later found during the afternoon parked in Inkerman Street in the town.

The officer in charge of the investigation, PC Dave Clarke, of the Collision Investigation Unit, is keen to trace anyone who saw the collision, particularly an elderly man, who may be a vital witness, as it is believed he spoke with the driver before he left the scene.

If you have any information contact PC Clarke on 01234 842469 or contact Crimestoppers, anonymously, on 0800 555 111.

FACING THE AXE The Mount in Tennyson Road

Leaflets cause care home woe

EXCLUSIVE

BY SOPHIE SCOTT

sophie.scott@lutononsunday.co.uk

FAMILIES of residents facing being forced out of their care home think the council has been insensitive by handing out leaflets for other centres.

Luton Borough Council has started a 90-day consultation into its plans to close down The Mount in Tennyson Road, Luton.

As of yet, no official verdict has been delivered on the future of the specialist dementia care home, but families think the decision has already been made.

Sandy McDowell, whose 89-year-old mother lives at The Mount, said: "We were at a meeting on Monday night and flyers were given out for another private care home inviting us to an open-day which I thought was cheeky and insensitive."

"And not just for us, for the staff, too. It speaks volumes and shows we have little chance of saving the home."

Peter Conquest of Barton-le-Clay, whose mother is also a resident, said: "The council has fervently denied a decision has been made but I think that is rubbish."

A Luton Borough Council spokeswoman said: "The leaflets were requested by residents' families who wanted to compare and contrast other facilities available as part of the consultation process."

All 28 residents are threatened with relocation if it is decided to close The Mount in February.

Its 43 members of staff would also face losing their jobs.

The council says it would cost at least £100,000 to bring the building up to standard and, in a year, savings of £604,000 would be made if the service was scrapped.

At the full Luton Borough Council this Tuesday, leader of Luton Liberal Democrats Cllr David Franks will ask Cllr Mehmood Hussain to: "Give an assurance that if the decision to close The Mount dementia care home is confirmed the home will not close so long as it houses permanent residents and that meanwhile, spare rooms will be used for short-term respite care?"

Burglary 999 call led to arrest of a sixteen year-old suspect

A TEENAGE boy was arrested on Tuesday after police received a report of a burglary in progress.

The incident happened at around 2.45pm when a member of the public dialled 999 to say she had noticed two youths climbing over a fence in Kingsway, Dunstable.

Officers launched an immediate area search and arrested a 16-year-old boy.

A number of neighbouring properties also reported burglaries on Tuesday afternoon.

The teenager was arrested on suspicion of two burglaries and two attempted burglaries. He was later released on police bail pending further inquiries.

The arrest was the latest in a series of operations as Bedfordshire Police moves forward with 'Op Vision', an ongoing initiative aimed at reducing burglary and promoting crime prevention.

Detective Constable Sarah Pickering said: "Burglaries tend to increase in the winter months and there is already evidence of this in the Dunstable area."

"Police are doing all we can and are committed to targeting burglars around the clock, as part of our ongoing winter burglary initiative."

"The public can help themselves by being vigilant and contact us if they see anything suspicious."

Anyone with information about burglary can contact police, in confidence on 01234 841212, or Crimestoppers, anonymously, on 0800 555 111

MP's delight at bypass date – despite the five-year wait

BY CHRISTINA JOHNSON
christina.johnson@lutononsunday.co.uk

AN MP has hailed a set date for the start of works on the long-awaited Dunstable bypass as 'fantastic news'.

Construction work will not begin until 2015 but the public inquiry will begin 'as soon as possible' according to a letter to South West Bedfordshire member Andrew Selous from Roads Minister Mike Penning dated on Thursday.

The road is set to relieve a huge amount of traffic from Dunstable and the Government proposes to meet Central Bedfordshire Council and the private developer as a matter of urgency to agree heads of terms between the Highways Agency and the developer.

However, the new Junction 11a cannot be built as the M1 Junctions 10 to 13 hard shoulder running contract let by the last Government did not include Junction 11a.

As a result the junction cannot be built at the same time with the hard shoulder running as this will end up costing the taxpayer more.

The Secretary of State for Transport, Philip Hammond, will visit the proposed A5-M1 link shortly to see for himself how badly it is needed and all the wider benefits to the whole community that will occur when it is built.

Mr Selous (pictured right) said: "This letter is fantastic news for Dunstable, Houghton Regis, Leighton Buzzard, Linslade and our surrounding villages.

"This bypass is the key to 6,800 new jobs, the regeneration of Dunstable and Houghton Regis as well as making Leighton Buzzard and Linslade a more attractive location for business.

"It will help us build some of the homes we need for local people as well. I look forward to welcoming the Secretary of State here shortly to see all this for himself."

Town's council is one of the leaders in cycle club's pothole-repairing league

LUTON Borough Council is one of the top pothole repairers in the country, according to new statistics. The Cyclist Touring Club (CTC) has announced the figures which show Luton is miles ahead of neighbouring council, Central Bedfordshire.

But out of 212 of the UK's local authorities Central Bedfordshire Council comes at a lowly 206th, fixing just ten of the 129 potholes reported to it.

Luton Borough Council on the other hand is in 29th place with eight of the 17 holes reported being fixed. It is estimated councils pay out more than £50 million in compensation claims due to poor roads with the holes at fault for a third of mechanical issues with cars on UK roads.

More than 40,000 potholes have been reported to the CTC with around 12,000 fixed. On average 287 holes are reported per day to the group.

Luton Borough councillor Dave Taylor said: "We would like to thank the people of Luton who are taking the time to make such good use of our highways maintenance hotline on 01582 510333. This is also a tribute to the professionalism of our staff and contractors who are dedicated to repairing potholes within 24 hours."

Since last winter Luton Borough Council has repaired an estimated 5,600 potholes.

More than 4,000 were completed during and immediately after the severe weather, and an average of 142 are completed each month within one hour of being confirmed by a highways inspector.

A Central Beds spokesman said: "We had not previously been aware of this league table. However, we will investigate the results and respond accordingly."

Deceitful brother and sister spared prison

BY JULIA SUTTON
editor@lutonmedia.co.uk

A BROTHER and sister who conspired to commit benefit fraud narrowly escaped jailed sentences on Thursday.

Rifa Begum, 28, and her brother Nadir Ahmed, 23, both of Highbury Road, Luton, pleaded guilty at Luton Crown Court to conspiracy to defraud Luton Borough Council between April 2003 and October 2005.

Judge Barbara Mensah said their comments to probation officers showed they did not appreciate how serious their misconduct had been.

She said: "Some people may think these offences are alright because no one suffers. But we all suffer the financial and social consequences of people who defraud the system."

"I do not accept that you did not realise it was so wrong."

Begum also pleaded guilty to obtaining a mortgage by deception in February 2006.

She was given an eight month prison sentence suspended for 12 months with 200 hours unpaid work and Ahmed a six month sentence suspended for 12 months with 150 hours work.

They were also both given a two month curfew.

Quinton Newcombe, prosecuting, said that over the period, £31,464 was paid in housing and council tax benefit to their mother to which she was not entitled.

The council were led to believe that she was paying rent to a landlord not related to her.

In fact Rifa Begum owned the property, and was believed to be living there for most of the time with her mother, brother and another sister.

In February 2006, she also obtained a further mortgage on the property for £16,332 for a loft extension by lying about her occupation and salary.

In interview she said she had been advised by a law centre that her mother was entitled to claim the allowances if her daughter was not living at home and she said a mortgage advisor had completed the application form.

Ahmed told investigators that his father had claimed benefits and after he died he completed the claim forms, saying he did not know his sister had bought the house. He said his mother knew nothing about it.

Counsel for the brother and sister said they had taken on their father's role at a young age and had not been living a lavish lifestyle on the money.

They said some of the money had been repaid and the mortgage company had not lost any money as a result of the fraud.

Road closed for busway scheme

A DIVERSION is in place as essential bridge works connected with the Luton Dunstable Busway take place.

Kingsway, in Luton, is closed to motorists and pedestrians until 10pm tonight between the roundabout junction with Laporte Way and the entrance to Kingsway Industrial Estate.

Motorists are asked to follow the signed diversion route via Hatters Way, Chaul End Lane and Dunstable Road, or via Leagrave Road, Woodlands Avenue, Montrose Avenue, New Bedford Road and Telford Way.

In total, the scheme involves the removal of five bridge decks in Luton and Dunstable this autumn.

Councillor Roy Davis said: "The works are being carefully scheduled at weekends in order to minimise the impact of any disruption for road users."

Forced marriages in the spotlight at conference

IT was all rise at the University of Bedfordshire's Moot Court when it hosted a family justice conference.

Solicitors, barristers and members of the judiciary attended the fifth annual forum organised by the Judiciary at Luton County Court.

The conference this year looked at forced marriages and rules on disclosure, with speakers from the police and barristers involved in Family Law.

The conference was led by His Honour Judge Sir Gavyn

Arthur and staff and students from the University's School of Law were on hand to host the event.

Professor Janine Griffiths-Baker, Head of the School of Law, said: "This is the second consecutive year we have hosted this important event and we were once again delighted to welcome members of the local legal profession to the University."

Delegates also visited the brand new £34m Campus Centre which is at the heart of the University's Luton campus.

Group hits out over 'non-jobs'

BY ADAM THOMPSON

editor@lsmmedia.co.uk

MORE than £700,000 is being wasted on so called 'unnecessary' and 'highly questionable' jobs across Bedfordshire's councils - according to a leading national pressure group.

Research from the Taxpayers' Alliance (TPA) shows that Central Bedfordshire and Luton Borough Councils are employing staff in roles labelled as 'non-jobs' with Luton the county's worst offenders.

The TPA compiled a report focusing on those who are employed as, or equivalent to, a political advisor, European officer, diversity officer and climate change officer across all UK councils between 2009-10.

Luton Borough Council employs several diversity officers costing £229,120, four climate change officers at a cost of £178,260 and a European officer for £34,264.

Central Bedfordshire Council pays out £56,904 and £50,666 for a diversity officer and climate change officer respectively.

The news comes a week after the Government announced that 500,000 jobs in the public sector are to be axed across the UK.

A spokesman for the TPA said: "This report examines four jobs which could be cut without affecting front-line services.

"These positions cost taxpayers millions of pounds each year but their purpose is highly questionable."

A spokeswoman for Luton Borough Council said: "With the Government budget situation, we are closely examining the whole staffing structure of the council and services provided to ensure we deliver the best possible services to suit our diverse local population.

"We have one European funding manager whose expertise in the complicated process of applying for specialist funding from Europe has helped us achieve, for example, £1.2 million for Stockwood Discovery Centre, £4m for Butterfield Business and Innovation Centre and £1.8m for the European Social Fund which supports people into employment and training.

"Five diversity officers help to promote equality and eliminate discrimination in line with the Equality legislation, and particularly valuable for Luton's diverse population.

"The Equality Act brings together nine separate pieces of legislation all of which have a major impact on the council's responsibilities as both a provider of services and as an employer.

"The authority is committed to advancing equality for all its residents and believes the best way of doing so is to have dedicated resources to comply with the legislation and secure the improvements required for its residents.

"The four climate change experts ensure the council reduces CO2 emissions by 11 per cent and achieves potential energy cost savings of £11.6m over the next three years.

"The council has been highly commended in the Sustainable FM Awards for being one of the most energy aware local authorities in the UK."

Pillowcase put over mum's head in burglary

A MOTHER was tied up and punched during a burglary at her house on Wednesday morning.

It happened at a home in Old Bedford Road, Luton, between 5am and 6am as she and her seven-year-old child were sleeping.

Two men forced their way into the property and made their way to the bedroom.

Once the woman was awake they tied her up and put a pillowcase over her head before punching her in the back.

PC Sophie McGrath said the men, who are both described as white and spoke with Irish accents, then took jewellery and cash before leaving the scene in an unknown direction.

She said: "This has happened at a property which is on one of Luton's major roads and it is possible that passers-by or motorists may have seen the men before or after the burglary. I would appeal to these people to come forward and tell the police exactly what they saw."

Anyone with information can contact her in confidence on 01582 394331, or Crimestoppers, anonymously, on 0800 555 111.

Council to be 'fair and just'

SIR - In last Wednesday's Comprehensive Spending Review, the Coalition Government announced a cut of 27 per cent in local authority funding over the next four years. Local councils will therefore bear the brunt of the spending cuts.

Clearly, the Government wants local councils to do its dirty work for it.

Even the Tories admit this, with Baroness Margaret Eaton, a leading Conservative councillor, saying "These cuts will cause real pain and anxiety for millions of people who use the services councils provide, from keeping children safe to ensuring that streets are clean... savings on this scale are bound to hit services on which people rely."

Like all other councils, Luton Borough Council will have to make some major savings, and this will inevitably lead to the loss of some jobs and services, but we will continue to defend the interest of the people of Luton, and make fairness and justice our priorities.

Hazel Simmons

Leader of Luton Borough Council

Restrict firework sales

SIR - With Hallowe'en, the Hindu festival of Diwali and Bonfire Night approaching, the fireworks season seems to go on longer than ever, but please spare a thought for the animals and birds who are terrified by the deafening crashes.

Traumatised dogs are rushed to vets for emergency treatment; sheep can spontaneously abort; horses gallop into fences; and rabbits have been known to die from the shock.

Animal Aid believes that – for the sake of all animals – fireworks should be sold only to organisers of public events and not to individuals wishing to set them off in their gardens or in the street.

A ban on sales to the general public would also prevent the terrible cruelties reported every year of vicious individuals deliberately harming animals by tying fireworks to them.

And for anyone who cares for animals, please keep cats and dogs indoors from the afternoon onwards and bring rabbits and guinea pigs inside as well (or at least cover their home with a thick blanket to muffle the noise). Also, be sure to check that hedgehogs and other wild animals have not made a home in your bonfire before you light it.

More political arrogance

SIR - The ruling political powers in Luton never cease to amaze me.

The latest completely impractical solution to an age-old Luton problem, the proposed swimming pool at Luton Regional Sport Centre's current site, is another glowing example of political arrogance of the highest order. This is yet another hare-brained scheme concocted by people who obviously don't live in Luton or know or understand anything about the town.

The new swimming centre will sit nicely alongside the new railway car park in Midland Road as possibly the most ill-conceived bit of planning of all time. What traffic management system will be in place?

I cannot wait to see how the 700-plus space car park on Midland Road will operate.

Where are the cars going to go?

The scandal of EU extradition

SIR - Some time ago a tremendous fuss was made about the secret transport of suspected terrorists to Guantanamo Bay and elsewhere for interrogation – a practice known as 'extraordinary rendition'.

To date, over 1,000 British subjects have been taken, under a European Arrest Warrant (EAW), for trial in countries like Greece. The difference being that, while extraordinary rendition is illegal, extradition with a EAW is legal under EU law.

Unfortunately for those concerned, when they are arrested in Britain and transported to some other part of the EU, they are not, under EU law, able first to have their case heard by a British magistrate.

Consequently, the extradition cannot be halted if the charge is found to be unjustified. And the EU claims that its laws are superior to ours.

Once in the hands of another EU state, the prisoner can be held for months before being tried, while the charge may relate to some innocent act, while on holiday, that is not an offence in Britain. It can even result from mistaken identity by a witness under circumstances that would never be accepted by a British court.

Meanwhile, his family is subjected to untold worry and even hardship.

And if he runs a business, it can be wrecked by his absence, with all the attendant misery for his employees and customers.

Whereas, if a British magistrate was allowed to hear the case first, it is probable that the accused could be released on bail pending his trial.

There may well be a legal difference between arrest under a EAW and extraordinary rendition.

But for the victim, who may well be innocent, the difference is exceedingly thin.

Richard Shaw

Evelyn Road, Dunstable

Did you vote for this?

SIR - It was depressing last Wednesday to see the Coalition Government undoing the good work that the previous Labour Government had done to prevent the banks' recession becoming a disastrous depression.

The Labour Government had taken necessary action to protect our economy. As a result, the budget deficit unavoidably increased, but in fact this increase was in line with the average for the 33 most developed countries.

Labour knew that this action would have to be followed by some cuts and tax increases when the economy became strong enough to bear them.

Leading economists predict that the Coalition Government's reckless gamble is likely to seriously hamper growth in our economy at a time when we are still struggling to recover from recession.

The Lib Dem/Tory Government claims that its cuts are 'fair'. But how can it be fair to make the most poor and vulnerable in our society pay for the results of the banks' reckless and greedy pursuit of profit?

The Chancellor's own figures show that the poorest ten per cent of our society will bear the largest share of the burden, while the bankers who started the whole thing off will escape relatively lightly.

Is this what people who supported the Liberal Democrats in May voted for?

Syd Knight
Atholl Close, Luton

Voters deserve better

SIR - We have reached a crucial stage in British politics where the citizens of this country are looking to the major political parties to deal with the financial problems facing this country with the following beliefs at the heart of everything they do – fairness, equality, justice and a clear purpose of protecting those least able to protect themselves. Yet we find ourselves with a government lacking in fairness – the inequalities and the injustices are there for everyone to see and surprise, surprise, the people least able to protect themselves are the very people being hit the hardest.

So people would therefore say to themselves: 'What about Her Majesty's Opposition? Surely they will step up to the political plate and be the guardians of fairness and social justice.'

Had a Labour Government been elected it would have been cutting deeply as well. People should remember the words of the ex-Chancellor Alistair Darling who stated that Labour's cuts would have been worse than Margaret Thatcher's in the 1980s. That does not tell me and many others that it is the statement of a party that had fairness, equality and justice at its political core.

It's clear to me that both parties have a lack of ambition to do what's right and they have lost any sense of political purpose in terms of doing what's fair for the country and the citizens who live in it.

The people wanted vision and they got dogma (from the Con/Lib Dem Government), the people wanted an alternative from a Labour Party, but got a party that's trapped in its New Labour past and seems incapable of breaking out.

The people of this country surely deserve better, but there is no political ambition to give them it – shame on you all for letting people down.

Peter Burrows
Bedfordshire Liberal Party

Care centre problems

SIR - With reference to your article regarding the Griffin Care Centre, I would like to make it clear that the problems there are not the fault of the nursing or care staff but is the result of bad management.

One of the reasons I put my mother, who has dementia, into their care was that the situation had become stressful and my mother had become a danger to herself and others around her. I assumed that all their nursing and care staff were trained to deal with the illness that my mother has, as there is a section in the home that specifically deals with dementia.

There has always been staff and will always be staff shortages, as with any business environment especially where stress is the main factor. The ratio of staff to residents on the dementia ward is 1:5. So in this situation you have five residents with different needs to one member of staff.

Hence five different kinds of dementia-related illnesses and I found it hard to deal with my mother on a 1:1 basis.

In the relatives meeting on October 5 it was announced that they have taken on five new care assistants, two new nurses and three new domestics subject to CRB checks and references and they will start within the next four to six weeks.

The issue here is what if, after the checks have been carried out, that they are not suitable, or they start the job and do not like it and leave, or they do not want the job? That means that the whole recruitment procedure will have to start again.

Given the situation that Southern Cross is in would it not be good business sense to approach an agency which has already carried out the checks, has candidates who already have dementia training and pay the agency to find them staff that they need, whether it be on a temporary or permanent basis, in order that the situation can be resolved as quickly as possible.

I understand that every business is formed to make a profit, but it also has a commitment to its customers.

Southern Cross has a duty of care to its residents where they are contracted to meet the needs of the residents and not the residents meeting the needs of the Southern Cross.

One of the situations facing the relatives of the residents in the home especially the residents with dementia is that if the home is forced to close it would not be easy as they do not like change.

The move would cause a lot of stress which in turn could kill them within the space of two weeks.

Moving house is very stressful for a person without a mental illness so imagine what a person with dementia will be going through. Therefore I would like to thank the nursing and care staff, who have not 'deserted the sinking ship', for trying to achieve the requirements of the local council and other governing bodies in order to care for your residents.

You do the job because you want to. I personally would not want to be in the situation that you are in right now.

Name and address supplied

Busway barminess

SIR - I agree with Mr Grierson-Hill's letter on October 17 'Who wants busway?'

Here are three points of mine. First I think some people in the Town Hall enjoy causing the damage described and had hatred for the old wooded railway. If the project stopped there is a tree-planting business on the A5 near Markyate that could restore it in weeks.

Second, the option I preferred, some diesel trains to run on existing rail tracks would with luck have paid its way, going by similar lines elsewhere. I doubt the busway will ever be paid for and can see a large increase in rates to prop it up. It could even bankrupt Luton.

Finally I am sure there was a large percentage who wanted the railway reopened but the true results of the survey were never published.

Perhaps they could be located.

Fire service PR bill will be £90k a year

BY SOPHIE SCOTT

sophie.scott@Ldexpress.co.uk

THE fire service is shelling out nearly £300,000 to bring in a private company to do its PR work.

In an advertisement for the job on The Drum website – which lists jobs available in PR, marketing and the media – it states: 'The overall value of the contract will be between £270,000 and £286,000 and will be divided across nine lots, beginning on April 1, 2011 and running for three years.'

It also says Bedfordshire and Luton Fire and Rescue Service is 'seeking marketing and public relations suppliers which will provide PR and promotional media support, advertising and marketing services and corporate branding expertise'.

David Franks, leader of Luton Borough Council's Liberal Democrats group, said: "I think they do need some professional help from time to time with dealing with local press, radio and TV but £90,000 a year is a hell of a lot of money."

"I just can't believe they really need £90,000. If they do they must be in all kinds of trouble."

A fire service spokeswoman, from Manners PR, said: "This is a new contract which is different to the one we are under."

"It provides a range of services from PR to marketing. We supply the press elements."

"It covers a broader range of skills than the existing one."

Gun wielding raider leaves shop without cash

A WOULD-BE robber was left empty handed after he was disturbed during an attempt to get cash from a shopkeeper.

A man, armed with a small gun, entered the Nisa Shop in Bishopscroft Road, Luton, on Wednesday night at around 8.40pm and demanded money.

Another member of staff then came in to the shop and disturbed the offender who left and ran towards Alder Crescent. He is described as a man with an Asian appearance, wearing a hat, a scarf over his face and dark clothing.

Detective Constable Nick Oates is keen to trace anyone who can help identify the offender or anyone who has information about this incident.

He said: "This is a busy area of the town during the evening and I would like to urge anyone who witnessed the incident or anyone who may have noticed someone matching this description loitering in the area during the evening to speak to the police."

Anyone with information can contact DC Oates, in confidence, on 01582 394335, or Crimestoppers, anonymously, on 0800 555 111.

Marsh Farm farce is as clear as... mud

DON'T shoot the messenger is a phrase that comes to mind at the moment.

As we have been reporting over the last few weeks, attempts to fund a project to help the unemployed in Marsh Farm has hit the buffers.

The Marsh Farm Outreach CIC had submitted a plan to help the unemployed start up their own businesses.

The cost of it would be £840,000, which would be stumped up by the Government, ie the taxpayer. The plan was rejected twice earlier this year, although the reasons have not been made clear.

The MFO group then lobbied the Minister of Communities and Local Government, Andrew Stunell. He changed his mind and said the funds would be forthcoming, although the reason for the change of mind were not made clear.

It was then revealed that MFO was in liquidation, so was not able to sign any contracts for this project.

The winding up order against MFO was then temporarily lifted, with conditions, but the conditions have not been fully explained.

Mr Stunell and his department then changed its mind again and the plan was rejected once more, although the reasons have not been made clear.

Do you sense a theme here? Well we certainly did and all we have been asking for is some clarity and explanation of what has been going on and why. The people of Luton deserve nothing less.

There has been a distinct lack of candour from all involved including MFO and especially Mr Stunell and his department.

I also understand that MFO and its supporters see Luton on Sunday's reporting of the story as an attempt to kill the project.

Not true, we welcome Government cash coming to Luton, particularly to help the unemployed.

But what LoS does want is to get to the truth behind this farce and the reasoning behind it. Luton taxpayers deserve to know what has been going on and that is what we have been calling for.

Apparently MFO are also seeking answers. We wish them luck and if they get any maybe they will answer our phone calls and share them with us.

Indeed, as I understand it, the money is still available, just not for this particular project.

So let's hope the umbrella organisation of MFO, the Marsh Farm Community Development Trust, gets its act together quickly and proposes an alternative scheme to help the jobless of the area and the Government money can still be used.

In a nice, open, accountable way.

Help police win battle with crime

CAN you assist the police in identifying these people caught on CCTV in Luton Co-op stores?

Officers want to speak to the woman (below right) in connection with a shoplifting offence which happened at the Cooperative Store in Wigmore Lane on October 16.

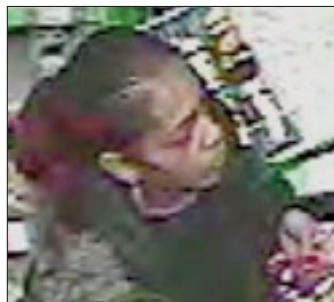

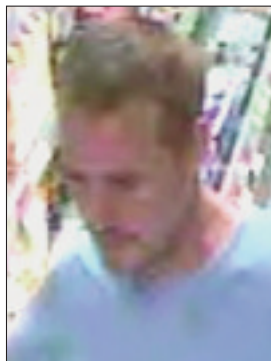

The two men (right) are wanted for questioning by officers in connection with the theft of a bunch of keys and various meat products from the Cooperative Store in St Dominics Square, Luton on September 17.

Anyone who can help identify these three people can contact PC Charles Pirie at Luton Police Station, in confidence, on 01582 394491 or contact Crimestoppers, anonymously, on 0800 555 111.

If you would like to help catch more criminals 'caught on camera' then visit the Bedfordshire Police website.

Guilty plea to 112 burglaries

A MAN has admitted to being responsible for more than 100 burglaries within the past 18 months.

Aaron Evangelou, 23, appeared before Luton Magistrates' Court on Tuesday morning after being charged with a burglary at an address in Ramsey Close, Lewsey Farm, on October 1, and another in Buchanan Drive, Luton, on May 28.

He asked magistrates for a further 111 burglary offences to be taken into consideration.

Evangelou was remanded into custody and will appear before Luton Crown Court on November 19.

Speaking after the hearing detective inspector Mark Upex said: "Burglary is a Bedfordshire Police priority and we would like to reassure members of the public we will do all we can to catch those who commit burglaries."

"This court result comes as Bedfordshire Police moves forward with 'Op Vision', an ongoing initiative aimed at promoting crime prevention where the force is continuing to work closely with partners at reducing burglary."

Brave Carol and her

LUPUS is something we may have all heard of but little is known about the illness.

Seventy-one-year-old Carol Rayner was diagnosed with lupus in 1982 and since then it has had a profound impact on her life.

She said: "I have been ill for many years, nobody knew what it was for ages. At 21, I was taken into hospital for six weeks and they didn't know what was wrong with me.

"My sugar level was up and down. They didn't know it then but it was probably the lupus.

"I have always bruised badly. I didn't need to be touched to bruise. I ended up in Luton & Dunstable Hospital in 1982 and they diagnosed me with Lupus. As they don't have a specialist unit there I was transferred to St Thomas' Hospital in London.

"I had miscarriages when I was in my 20s and the first thing they told me was if I had any children it would have killed me.

"I had to have an hysterectomy in my late 20s so I suppose it was a good thing really."

While the word lupus may conjure up images of wolves (it means wolf in Latin), its origin lies in a facial rash which was thought to resemble a wolf's bite. It is an incurable immune system illness and it is thought that some 50,000 people suffer from it in the UK.

Carol and her husband Jack have run Rayner's School of Dancing in Ashwell Avenue, Sundon Park for 46 years.

"We have danced at the Royal Albert Hall in a formation team. Jack's hobby was to dance and after we got married I got into it and we haven't really looked back since."

They both love to dance and to teach but, while Jack is still teaching as much as he can, Carol (pictured) has had to take a back seat as her symptoms have become worse. She had a stroke ten years ago and has to walk with crutches.

But last weekend, some of their students went on a sponsored walk to raise money for the national lupus battle with the 'Wolf'

charity and raised more than £400. October is national lupus awareness month and as many of the symptoms can be confused with other illnesses and diseases, Carol wants people in Luton to be aware of them.

Women are the principal sufferers and lupus can be triggered after childbirth, during puberty or at the menopause as it is mainly caused by hormonal activity and change.

The two major symptoms are joint and muscle aches and pains and extreme fatigue and weakness.

Others include a permanent rash over cheeks, flu-like symptoms, increased risk of miscarriage and rashes from sunlight.

Carol explained how she had to take numerous tablets a day: "I live on a lot of tablets, about 20 a day, I take steroids and the after effects are that it attacks my bones so my walking is not all that good. I have to use crutches to walk."

"I have to go to the L&D to have blood tests each week as I have low platelets in my blood and I am on the steroids to keep them up. But it is a catch-22 situation really as the steroids then affect my bones."

"It is so difficult to diagnose in the first place, it mimics other diseases. I am very lucky though, I have to admit I couldn't get better medical treatment than what I do at the L&D and at St Thomas'. They do really look after me." For more about lupus, visit www.lupusuk.org.uk

Owners may be forced to sell empty properties

BY HAZEL SLADE
editor@LSNmedia.co.uk

OWNERS of the 2,313 empty homes across Central Bedfordshire may be forced to sell up if they don't bring them back to life.

However, council bosses have said a forced sale or compulsory purchase order is a 'last resort'.

The draft Empty Homes Strategy 2010-2015 by Central Bedfordshire Council, which went before the Social care, Health and Housing Overview and Scrutiny committee on Monday, is hoping to bring the 1,160 homes which have been vacant for six months or more back into use.

And, if the programme is given the thumbs-up by the council's Executive Committee on Tuesday, the cash-strapped authority could spend up to £160,000 a year on the plans.

Cllr Rita Drinkwater, portfolio holder for housing at Central Bedfordshire Council, said: "We want to bring long term empty homes back into occupation."

"We will be looking at why owners leave homes empty and working closer with partners and property owners to look at reducing the number of empty homes we have.

"For example, some owners may be struggling to renovate homes to habitable standards and may welcome loan assistance.

"Other owners may want help to let their properties, which is where we can work with local Lettings Agents, under the council's new Lets Rent scheme.

"There is not a 'one size fits all' answer to this issue which is why the proposed research is necessary."

Mayor's appeal for public to buy poppies

THE MAYOR of Luton is encouraging people to support the annual poppy appeal.

This year's appeal is focusing on supporting serving personnel, ex-service and family members affected by the Afghanistan and Iraq conflicts.

Councillor Tom Shaw said people can buy a poppy at the council reception and other outlets throughout the town.

The Poppy Appeal supports more than 150,000 people each year.

Cllr Shaw said: "Thousands of men and women in our armed services risked their lives to protect this country and many more are continuing to do so today to help liberate people whose countries are at war.

"Please buy a poppy and show our armed forces and their families that their efforts have not gone unnoticed.

"The 2009 Poppy Appeal raised more than £34 million, another all time record, and with your support I'm sure even more money can be generated for this worthy cause."

Nick Buckley, head of the Poppy Appeal, said: "I am most grateful to Cllr Shaw and all the citizens of Luton for their continued support of the Poppy Appeal.

"The 2010 appeal is about helping the Afghan generation of the Armed Forces and their families, today and for the rest of their lives and on behalf of those who will benefit from your generosity, I give my most sincere thanks."

Poppies will be available from tomorrow. For more information about the appeal visit www.britishlegion.org.uk

Assessment to focus on town's childcare provision

LUTON Borough Council is seeking residents' views about whether the level of childcare in the town is as good as it should be.

All local authorities must carry out a Childcare Sufficiency Assessment to identify any gaps and, where reasonably practicable, develop plans to ensure childcare provision meets parents and carers' needs, allowing them to go to work or undertake training leading to work.

The overall findings of the last assessment, published in March 2008, indicated a general satisfaction with mainstream childcare provision but with some areas to focus on.

The council then worked on flexible, extended and free nursery education for all three and four year olds and free nursery education for two year olds where parents are getting benefits.

Access to childcare for children with disabilities was also increased and more families were informed about the benefits of formal childcare and the availability of tax credits.

Improving the quality, access and inclusion of early years and childcare providers as well as providing extended services and safe places for older children and young people were also achieved.

A report on the latest assessment will be published by the end of March 2011.

To contribute, complete the online form at www.luton.gov.uk/csa, contact 01582 548888, or email cfis@luton.gov.uk

Supporters get to work on status bid

BY SOPHIE SCOTT

sophie.scott@lutononsunday.co.uk

A CAMPAIGN to make Luton a Fairtrade town will be put to the council this week.

Grassroots and Luton Council of Faiths are leading the movement which would see the town promote products bearing the Fairtrade mark.

At the full Luton Borough Council meeting on Tuesday night councillors will consider a motion to support the campaign.

The first part of the process is for the council to start using Fairtrade products, such as coffee, in its meetings and canteen.

The council would have to appoint an officer and a councillor to liaise with the Fairtrade Steering Group.

Fairtrade is a tool for development that ensures disadvantaged farmers and workers in developing countries get a better deal when customers buy their products.

David Jonathan, of Grassroots, said: "This campaign was first launched in 2007.

"We get into the community as much as possible and we even have the UK's first Fairtrade Hindu temple in Luton along with churches and Luton's synagogue.

"The campaign will end in 2011 at some point when we have achieved Fairtrade status for the town.

"I am very pleased with how it has gone so far and it is a very awarding and satisfying process."

Water-way to enjoy a relaxing holiday

TRAVEL

SHROPSHIRE UNION CANAL

AS a beach-loving holidaymaker, it was with some trepidation that I hit the seven seas for a three-day autumn boating trip.

And even more so as my shipmates were three ladies more accustomed to wine and heels, than water and eels.

But as always, me hearties were ready to take on a challenge.

Ok, it might not have quite been the seven seas, but to us the Shropshire Union Canal was difficult enough.

Jumping aboard Countrywide Cruisers' four-man boat Sir Ulfius, we were all pleasantly surprised.

The best way to describe it is a caravan on water but a nice one.

It had two double beds and, luckily, two bathrooms and two showers. The kitchen was small, but fully equipped and we even had a television, although the signal wasn't great.

Before we set off, the very patient guide from Countrywide Cruisers showed us how to work the boat and even stayed on board for the first mile or so while we got the hang of it.

It really is quite simple. You switch the engine on, make it go faster or slower, and steer.

Actually, the steering wasn't quite so simple. The long pole (I can't remember the technical name for this) you steer with is super sensitive and a tad confusing, as left means right and vice versa.

Now, after a few glasses of vino, this can prove to be most difficult and on more than one occasion we ended up horizontally across the canal.

One of our crew members found it

Info station

SIR Ulfius was supplied by Countrywide Cruisers (Bree-wood) Ltd, The Wharf, Bree-wood, Stafford ST19 9BG. For more information call 01902 851662, email info@countrywide-cruisers.com or visit www.countrywide-cruisers.com particularly challenging, but by day three even this fashion designer from Marston Moretaine had the hang of it.

Now, one thing your company will tell you before you set sail is that the canal boating community is the friendliest bunch of people you'll ever meet.

That is true until you make a mistake, get stuck or cause a river traffic jam.

Then they are definitely the least friendly group you will ever meet.

Once we had mastered jumping off to moor up - which is not for the faint-hearted - our next objective was to stop at as many pubs as possible en route.

And in our three days on the water, remembering we had to turn around and go back half way through, we made it to the Navigation Pub in Gnosall for a lovely, reasonably priced evening meal.

We also stopped for a tipple at the tiny (and strange) Anchor pub, just past Norbury, and tried to get into the Wharf Tavern on the border with Staffordshire, although we were thwarted by timings.

But apart from eating, drinking and being merry, there was little more to do along the canals for us party-loving girls.

The scenery was nice in parts although mostly just trees and a bit of farmland.

But with the sun shining and a beer in hand, it made a change to just relax into the nothingness.

If you are going to do it, here are a few tips gleaned from our first boating holiday.

■ Don't moor up in the dark or you'll end up in someone's garden.

■ Always align your boat straight through the tunnels or you'll crash and knock your wine into the water.

■ Don't have long hot showers on the first day and use up all your water supplies.

■ Oh, and remember, the waterways is the only place you are actually encouraged to drink and drive.

Group are a pleasure from the off

HOLYWELL ENSEMBLE

Library Theatre, Luton
Tomorrow, 7.45pm

THE Holywell Ensemble was formed in 1983 and has been building an enviable reputation ever since.

The Ensemble's London South Bank debut in 1985 was described in The Times as "a pleasure from start to finish", and the group has continued to be noted for its lively and committed playing.

Originally a piano quartet, the group has since expanded to include other instruments.

The versatility of these different combinations results in a broad range of repertoire from mainstream classics to specially commissioned works.

For this concert, a horn and clarinet are added to the traditional string quartet to perform music by Brahms and Glazunov, as well as the Sextet by John Ireland, whose music is a continuing thread running through this season's concerts.

Tickets are also available from the Luton Library Theatre box office on 01582 547474 or on the door.

HAVING A LAUGH: The Naked Truth is an hilarious show with a cast full of famous faces

Pole dancing comedy is a show of sisterhood

THE NAKED TRUTH

Grove Theatre, Dunstable
Tuesday - Saturday, November 6, various times

SET in a pole dancing class
The Naked Truth is a brilliantly funny play about sisterhood.

This show which had an ecstatic reception and fantastic reviews on its previous tours, returns with Michelle Heaton of Liberty X fame and one-part of the chart-topping band The Nolans, Maureen Nolan.

Joining them are West-End star Leanne Jones and Clare King (Emmerdale's bad girl Kim Tate) plus one-half of the infamous Grange Hill terrible twins and Hollyoaks mainstay Julie Buckfield.

It's a woman thing, as five very different females struggle hilariously to conquer pole dancing for a charity event to raise awareness and money for breast cancer.

As their stories unfold and unravel, they share laughter and tears in this funny but sad and ultimately moving show.

The Naked Truth is a poignant and uplifting comedy, a call to all women and celebrating strength through adversity.

Tickets start from £15 and are available online at www.grove-theatre.co.uk or from the box office on 01582 602080.

Luton Borough Council
Transport and Works Act 1992
The Luton Dunstable Translink Order 2006
Notice of intention to make General Vesting Declaration

Notice is hereby given in accordance with section 3 of the Compulsory Purchase (Vesting Declarations) Act 1961 of the intention of Luton Borough Council (the Authority) to make a General Vesting Declaration vesting the land described in the Schedule to this notice in themselves at the expiration of not less than two months from the publication of this notice.

The following paragraphs contain a statement of the effect of Parts II and III of the Compulsory Purchase (Vesting Declarations) Act 1961.

PART I

Power to make general vesting declaration

1. The Authority may acquire any of the land described in the Schedule hereto by making a general vesting declaration under Section 4 of the Compulsory Purchase (Vesting Declarations) Act 1961. This has the effect, subject to paragraph 4 below, of vesting the land in the Authority at the end of the period mentioned in paragraph 2 below. A declaration may not be made before the end of a period of two months from the first publication of a notice which includes this statement except with the consent in writing of every occupier of the land affected.

Notices concerning general vesting declaration

2. As soon as may be after the Authority make a general vesting declaration, they must serve notice of it on every occupier of any of the land specified in the declaration (except land where there is one of the tenancies described in paragraph 3) and on every person who gives them information relating to the land in pursuance of the invitation contained in any notice of the general vesting declaration is completed, a further period begins to run. This period, which must not be less than 28 days, will be specified in the declaration. On the first day after the end of this period (the 'vesting date') the land described in the declaration will, subject to what is said in paragraph 4, vest in the Authority together with the right to enter on the land and take possession of it. Every person on whom the Authority could have served a notice to treat in respect of his interest in the land (other than a tenant under one of the tenancies described in paragraph 3) will be entitled to claim compensation for the acquisition of his interest in the land, with interest on the compensation from the vesting date.

Modifications with respect to certain tenancies

3. In the case of certain tenancies, the position stated above is subject to modifications. The modifications apply where the tenancy is either a 'minor tenancy', i.e. a tenancy for a year or a yearly tenancy or a lesser interest, or 'a long tenancy which is about to expire'. The latter expression means a tenancy granted for an interest greater than a minor tenancy but having on the vesting date a period still to run which is not more than the period specified in the declaration for this purpose (which must be more than a year). In calculating how long a tenancy has still to run, where any option to renew or to terminate it is available to either party, it shall be assumed that the landlord will take every opportunity open to him to terminate the tenancy while the tenant will use every opportunity to retain or renew his interest.

4. The modifications are that the Authority may not exercise the right of entry referred to in paragraph 2 in respect of land subject to a tenancy described in paragraph 3 unless they first serve notice to treat in respect of the tenancy and then serve every occupier of the land with a notice of their intention to enter and take possession after the period (not less than 14 days from the service of the notice) specified in the notice. The right of entry will be exercisable at the end of that period. The vesting of the land will be subject to the tenancy until the end of that period or until the tenancy comes to an end, whichever happens first.

PART II

Invitation to give information

Every person who, if a general vesting declaration was made in respect of all the land comprised in the order (other than land in respect of which notice to treat has been served), would be entitled to claim compensation in respect of any such land, is invited to give information to the Authority making the declaration in the prescribed form with respect to his name and address and the land in question. The relevant prescribed form is set out below.

Schedule

Part of the land comprised in the order as confirmed and shown edged red on the plans deposited at the offices of Luton Borough Council, Town Hall, George Street, Luton, Bedfordshire, LU1 2BQ; and Central Bedfordshire Council, High Street North, Dunstable, Bedfordshire LU6 1LF and available for inspection at all reasonable hours. Ivanovic keeps runaway Blues in charge

CHELSEA recovered from a first-half scare to maintain their five-point lead at the top of the Barclays Premier League with a 2-1 win at Blackburn.

The Blues were shocked by Benjani Mwaruware's first of the season before Nicolas Anelka beat Paul Robinson after Didier Drogba's knock down to equalise.

Blackburn were then made to pay for missing a golden chance through Mame Biram Diouf when Branislav Ivanovic nodded home to seal the victory.

Alex Song's header in the dying minutes gave Arsenal a 1-0 victory over rock-bottom WEST HAM at the Emirates Stadium. A great performance from Robert Green, who kept out Song and Cesc Fabregas with two athletic first half saves, ensured that the game remained goalless until the 88th minute when Song nodded home Gael Clichy's cross to keep Arsenal in touch with the leaders.

EVERTON stretched their unbeaten run to five matches thanks to Ayegbeni Yakubu's first goal of the season in a 1-0 win over STOKE at Goodison Park. The Nigerian picked up the ball from Tim Cahill after the Australian's shot had rebounded off a post before beating Asmir Begovic to condemn Stoke to their fourth straight defeat.

FULHAM were catapulted eight places to eighth with a 2-0 win over WIGAN thanks to a Clint Dempsey double.

And a controversial late goal from Nani and a first-half header by MANCHESTER UNITED captain Nemanja Vidic ensured TOTTENHAM'S 21-year wait for victory at Old Trafford continued as they swept to a 2-0 victory.

King Edwards has Mancini in a daze

ROBERTO MANCINI labelled Manchester City's performance as the worst of the season after Wolves achieved a shock victory at Molineux.

Mancini was at a loss to understand how City, who dominated the opening phase of the game, went into decline after taking a 23rd-minute lead with Emmanuel Adebayor's spot-kick.

Wolves equalised six minutes later through Nenad Milijas and then David Edwards' first goal for 14 months settled the issue after 56 minutes.

Mancini (inset) said: "We only played for the first 25 minutes. We played very well during that period of the game and had four or five chances to score."

"But then we stopped playing and Wolves deserved to win this game."

"It was the worst game we have played. I don't know why this happened, but we must regroup and understand why."

"Maybe we thought after 20 minutes that it was an easy game. A team can lose, but you can't lose like we did after playing like that for 60-70 minutes." Mancini admitted: "This was the sort of game you have to win if you want to challenge for the title."

"But the season is long, we started it very well and there is time to recover."

Wolves ended a run of six League games without a win but manager Mick McCarthy insisted: "That result has been coming for a few weeks. We deserved to win today."

"When you are bottom, but playing well, with a great spirit, it sounds really hollow when you say things like that. But this performance and result summed it all up for me. Without our team spirit, we would be history. I have been saying that for weeks."

Winger Matt Jarvis turned in another excellent display to press his England claims.

McCarthy explained: "He has been excellent. He is giving everyone problems."

"Last weekend, he gave Ashley Cole as difficult a time as he has had and ran the two Manchester United full-backs ragged in the week."

Hodgson rounds on critics

TODAY'S ACTION

3.00pm v Liverpool, 4pm, Sky Sports 1

ROY HODGSON intends to ignore the critics as he focuses on turning Liverpool's poor start to the season around.

The Reds boss is under pressure with his team in the bottom three of the Barclays Premier League after nine games.

Some of the tension was eased with victory over Blackburn last weekend,

HODGSON: Fighting talk

but Hodgson is not getting carried away with one performance. The former Fulham manager said: "It is quite easy to kick people when they are down."

"We are down at the moment so the kicks are going to rain down on us. We just have to deal with it."

"We're in a poor position and need to get a result in every game to get out of it."

Bolton, under Owen Coyle, are enjoying their best start to a season for four years – but victory for the Reds would put them level on points with the Trotters.

Saints pack powers them to the summit

NEWCASTLE coach Alan Tait admitted his side were overpowered in the scrum as they suffered a heavy defeat to Northampton.

The Saints went top of the Aviva Premiership with a 34-13 victory set up by their forwards' domination.

"Our set piece wasn't good enough," Tait said. "We were outpowered in the scrum and from that base it's impossible to build up any momentum."

Saints coach Jim Mallinder said: "The first half was very frustrating. Our set piece was dominant and we needed to be sharper, but credit to Newcastle for they hung in there."

Creasey Park tie falls foul of council putting generator out of the game

SOUTH MIDLANDS PREMIER

DUNSTABLE TOWN'S home fixture against Kentish Town was postponed as the generator at Creasey Park has been decommissioned by the council. They have been told no football will be played there until the problem is sorted out, forcing their home game against Langford on Tuesday night to be moved to an away fixture. Match secretary Paul Harris said: "They won't send any officials here as we cannot supply them with proper facilities until it is fixed. "The council has promised to replace the generator within two weeks to ensure our FA Vase tie against Cambridge United on November 13 will not be affected."

SOUTH MIDLANDS DIV ONE

AFC DUNSTABLE claimed another win after beating Kings Langley 2-0, leaving them unbeaten in 19 games. Dermot Butler played a superb ball for veteran Gary Capehorne to hit home after only ten minutes. Dunstable kept control and on 65 minutes man-of-the-match BJ Christie rounded three players and hit an almighty screamer to double the lead. Dunstable play Bedfont in the Beds Senior Trophy Quarter Finals next Saturday away. CRAWLEY GREEN narrowly missed out after hosts Stony Stratford beat them 1-0. Henry Mungwira had the visitors' best opportunity, but his shot whistled past the post. On 35 minutes the hosts went 1-0 up through a header which goalkeeper Sam Leggett tipped onto the post which then crept in. Crawley play Bedford FC away on Wednesday.

SOUTH MIDLANDS DIV TWO

KENT ATHLETIC had a convincing 4-1 away win over bottom-of-the-league Bletchley yesterday. Winger Ross Bates grabbed a hat-trick as Kent bossed their local rivals. Kent grabbed the lead in the 35th minute through Bates with Bletchley equalising just two minutes later. With the sides going in at half time 1-1, Kent took the lead in spectacular fashion from a Bates free kick. The game was all but over by the 70th minute with Bates scoring a low drive to complete his hat-trick. A weakened TOTTERNHOE side also won away from home defeating Old Bradwell United 4-0. Goals from Shaun Bishop and Chris Golding ensured all three points as Totternhoe dominated throughout, while youngster Jack Lauder stood out as he made his first start for the senior side. 61FC'S tie with Risborough Rangers was abandoned after 20 minutes of the first half by the police after reports that a serious stabbing had taken place in the area. 61FC were 1-0 up at the time but the tie will be replayed at a later date. BRACHE SPARTA'S tie with Padbury United was also postponed at the last minute with Brache only able to muster five fit players for the game.

Kevin can be called back from loan deal

KEVIN Pilkington can be called back to Luton Town at a day's notice after being loaned out to Blue Square Bet Premier rivals Mansfield Town on Thursday.

Manager Richard Money revealed that the keeper (pictured) has been sent to Field Mill for three months – joining fellow Hatter Adam Murray – to get games after being restricted to only two appearances this term.

The 36-year-old former Manchester United stopper has previously spent five years at the Nottinghamshire club from 2000 and he went straight into the Stags' side yesterday in their defeat to Crawley Town.

"He's got a 24 hour recall and we think it's a common sense decision," said Money. "He's been more and more anxious to get game time and you can arrange reserve games and practice matches, but it's not the same."

"We know that he's an excellent goalkeeper and we felt that this particular opportunity to go to Mansfield, close to his home, was the right one to take."

The manager also revealed that the Hatters are currently running the rule over a 22-year-old Ilkeston Town stopper, but that until a decision is made, Lewis Kidd, who was promoted from the development set-up to the bench for yesterday's victory against Bath City, will deputise for Mark Tyler. Money said: "We have a boy with us at the minute called Dan Lowson from Ilkeston and we'll continue to look at him and make a decision on him next week."

"For Kevin, he needs game time and it keeps him sharp, and that's the main thing."

Money left reeling by fans' reaction

RICHARD Money was emotional and disappointed following Luton Town's 3-1 victory over Bath City after supporters jeered him following a substitution.

Money took off Danny Crow on 74 minutes and replaced him with Dan Walker at a stage in the game where the Hatters were looking comfortable and Bath were creating very little threat despite pulling a goal back just after the hour.

Large sections of supporters booed the manager when they saw the ex-Cambridge United striker leaving the pitch and cries of 'You don't know what you're doing' echoed around Kenilworth Road.

"I'm disappointed, I'm very disappointed," said Money.

"It's what I said two weeks ago when I talked about signing another contract."

"If everybody's not together in all of this, I won't sign it. If they can't trust me to make the right substitutions, I'm wasting my time."

"Everyone tells me that Howells and Barnes-Homer together for England were outstanding."

"We had to do something in the middle of the pitch. It meant taking one of the strikers off so I put Barnes-Homer and Howells in that situation and they were terrific."

"I matched up Besta and Keane with the other two players and played three up top."

CELEBRATION TURNS SOUR: Former Luton Town boss John Moore paraded on the pitch at half time yesterday with other former players and bosses but Richard Money (inset) was left disappointed

The last 20 minutes we could have gone on and won four, five, even six-one.

"If people don't trust me to make the right decisions in terms of substitutions and team selections, I am wasting my time and I feel very, very strongly about it."

"We've won seven out of eight, we're 3-1 up, and I've got supporters singing 'You don't know what you're doing.' Thanks very much. Thanks a lot. I'm so disappointed."

"I think it shows what people think of me. Have a look at the last year of results. We just won seven out of eight."

"Have a look at how the team are progressing and you get that reaction when a player is substituted because you take off a player that they like."

"Unreal. I'm so disappointed and I have to think about where we go from here."
